

TABLE OF CONTENTS

i	Editorial Cyprian Piskurek and Mark Schmitt
1	“It’s Building Up This Massive Inferiority Complex Inside You”: An Interview with Lynsey Hanley Cyprian Piskurek and Mark Schmitt
16	The Financialisation of Housing – From Human Right to Tradeable Asset Nadja Rottmann
27	Land Enclosures and Philosophical Radicalism: Discussing Property Rights in the Long 18th Century Sophia Möllers
37	The (High) Rise and Faults of the ‘Mouth of the Tyne’: T. Dan Smith and 1960s North-East housing Victoria Allen
51	“Little Boxes on the Hillside”: Tiny Houses and the Predicament of Private Life Johannes Schlegel
61	Housing and Homelessness in 21st-century Ireland Kieran Harrington

TABLE OF CONTENTS

72

Lockdown!
Re-Assessing Home in COVID-19 British Fiction
Sarah Heinz

81

The Emptiness of British Politics:
Loss, Melancholia, Hauntings
Mark Schmitt

87

“Ghosts Never Leave You”:
Remi Weekes’ His House
Mark Schmitt